Meet Lene and Peter

Meet Lene and Peter

'We've been married for 18 months,' says Lene. 'But our bedroom has never been a priority. I suppose we learned to live with the niggling problems.'

The transformation

'We didn't stamp our personality as a couple on the room,' explains Peter. 'We just painted the walls white and bought a closet – that ended up being too small! We didn't have anywhere near enough storage space.' IKEA FAMILY LIVE stylist Pernilla Åsberg made changes to bring the passion back to Lene and Peter's bedroom.

The perfect wardrobe
